RUSSIANS WILL HOLD LAIO YANG

It is Understood Stolid Resistance Will be Made.

Nothing Authentic Today Regarding Firing Heard Near Port Arthur.

RUSSIAN TROOPS ARE HUNGRY

Paris, August 10.—A telegram received by the foreign office states that General Kuroptkin will not abandon Liao Yang, but intends to give battle there within three or four days.

GEN. KUROKTI'S LOSS.

London, August 10.—Renter's correspondent with General Kuroptkin reports that there was heavy Russian attack on Kuroptkin's right. The Russian prisoners state their army is sometimes two days without food. General Kuroptkin's losses to August 10, was 900 killed and wounded.

SEVERAL CLASHES.

St. Petersburg, August 10.—General Kuroptkin reports several minor clashes of outposts.

GOT OUT IN A HURRY.

Seoul, August 10.—Two companies of Russians entered Gensan yesterday, but retired hurriedly upon discovering that the Japanese were there in superior force. There were no casualties.

TO DEFEAT THE PLAN.

Liao Yang, Saturday, August 10.—(Delayed).—General Kuroptkin is ready to defeat the Japanese plan for entring off Liao Yang. The Japanese forces are concentrated in three groups—the first at Simoncheng, Hail Cheng and New Chwang; the second threatening Lian Dinsan and Liao Yang; and the third threatening Sia-sayan, Liao Yang and Mukden.

According to Chinese reports the Japanese are massing in the direction of Siamatze, evidently flanking Liao Yang, and a strong column is ascending the Liao valley from New Chwang, also for the purpose of flanking Liao Yang.

A reliable Chinese merchant declares this column includes 10,000 Chinese and Japanese subjects from the Island of Formosa. This most unwelcome development may induce other Chinese to join the Japanese. It is hard to tell a Formosan from a Manchurian.

ATTACK SUSPECTED.

Chefoo, August 10.—From a source hitherto reliable it is said there is good reason to believe that the Japanese are renewing their attack on the remaining outer positions at Port Arthur. The officers of the German cruiser Fuerst Bismarck, lying at the outer edge of this harbor, express the opinion that firing heard was an encounter between detachments of the belligerent warships approximately twenty miles northwest of Chefoo. From the cruiser's advantageous position the flashes preceding the detonations could be seen.

STRIKE BROKEN

UNCLE SAM THINKS THE GOVERNMENT BUILDING TROUBLE IS OVER.

Washington, August 10.—The government has placed seventeen more strike-breakers at work on the Washington Barracks building. The war department considers the strike broken, and now would not employ the strikers if they applied for work.

IN THE ACT

BURGLAR CAUGHT RED-HANDED AT LANCASTER.

Lancaster, Ky., August 10.—A negro burglar was captured last night who saw him enter Miss Mattie Kates' house last night. He possessed a gold watch stolen from Cemetery Keeper Henry's house Sunday night.

A BUNCH OF FOREIGN NEWS

Glasgow, August 10.—The Clyde shipbuilders have been asked to make terms quickly for the construction of British battleships two excel anything in the world.

KING HOLDS COUNCIL.

London, August 10.—The king held a council at Buckingham palace this morning and then started incognito for Marlborough.

HOTEL MAN DEAD.

Paris, August 10.—T. E. Roessel, the widely known proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, Washington, died suddenly at the Grand Hotel this morning.

A $150,000 BLAZE.

Victoria, B. C., August 10.—Fire yesterday destroyed the Alton Iron works and many houses. The loss is $150,000 and fifty families are homeless. Two firemen were injured, one seriously.

MAKES ANOTHER PROMISE.

Constantinople, August 10.—The Porta has promised Minister Leishman a favorable reply within a day or two regarding American representation in schools and other subjects.

RUSSIANS MURDERED.

Berlin, August 10.—The Vossische Zeitung says that Gudenko, the head of the forest department, and Knizeneff, chief of police, have been murdered openly in the streets of Nakhivan, Russia.

SQUADRON PASSED.

Messina, August 10.—The American squadron, bound for Smyrna passed the Straits Tuesday afternoon.

ROUSSEAU IS DEAD.

Paris, August 10.—The former French premier, Waldeck Rousseau is dead.

MORE RATE CUTTING.

Birmingham, August 10.—Representatives of the Cunard and Hamburg lines failed to settle the Atlantic rate war, and negotiations have ended. It is reported the Hamburg American will make a $6 rate.

$10,000 DAMAGES

Dr. F. W. Roberts Shes Dr. Hessig and Wife.

Says They Alienated the Affection of His Wife, Mrs. Hessig's Sister.

Attorneys A. L. Harper and G. C. Douglass have filed in circuit court a suit for $10,000 for F. W. Roberts, a veterinary surgeon, against Dr. H. T. Hessig and his wife, Mrs. Ida Hessig, alleging that they decoyed his wife away from home and alienated her affections.

Mrs. Roberts is a sister of Mrs. Hessig and the petition alleges that the two defendants enticed her away from him by offering support and other things, thus depriving him of his wife. Further that they so alienated her affections that she refuses to return to him.

BOTH WANT A NEW TRIAL.

Tomorrow the motion for a new trial in the case of the Cumberland Telephone company against the N. C. and St. L. road will be argued before County Judge R. T. Lightfoot.

Both sides want a new trial, the plaintiff saying that the damages awarded to the defendant for right of way are too large and the defendant claiming the damages are not enough.

ESTIMATED LOSS IN PACKERS' STRIKE

It Has Now Lasted Nearly One Month, and Not Yet Over.

Packers Lose Over Three Million Dollars and Strikers Nearly As Much.

MUCH STOCK IS TIED UP

GOVERNMENT BUILDING WORK

Chicago, Aug. 10.—The following figures are partly official and partly estimated. In the matter of losses on account of the strike the statistics necessarily must be largely guesses, but the figures appended are as near the facts as can be arrived at:

Number of days on strike, 27.

Number of strikers in Chicago, 25,534.

Number of strikers in other cities, 35,000.

Wives and children of strikers, 250,000.

Loss in wages to date, $2,751,000.

Loss to packers in business, $3,200,000.

Paid to strikers in benefits, $80,000.

Paid by packers in increased wages, etc., $250,000.

Number of cattle tied up on ranges, 186,500.

Number of sheep tied up on ranges, 310,500.

Number of hogs tied up on ranges, 229,221.

Loss to stockmen, $1,975,810.

Total money loss, $8,220,800.

Men working in Chicago plants, 16,782.

About fifty labor unions are now involved in the struggle in Chicago.

There was no renewal today of the rioting that last night marked the strike. The strikers extending their pickets to all dealers that patronize the trust. There is no sign of a settlement. The packers claim the strike is practically broken.

The government wireless telegraph system from Nome, Alaska, to St. Michael was successfully inaugurated.

MORAN OF THE LADY LETTY

BY FRANK NORRIS

This superb sea tale by the brilliant author of "The Pit," "The Octopus," etc., will be run serially in this paper, beginning in our next issue.

"SCRATCH a Russian and you will find a Tartar." In Moran of the Lady Letty, daughter of a Norse sea captain, you find a viking. Here are some glimpses of her from the author's pen: "Moran, the girl of the Lady Letty, standing erect upon the quarter deck holding down the schooner's wheel. She was herself again—savage, splendid, dominant."

"That night, lying flat on her back on the deck, with the quadrant to her eye, she 'got a star and brought it down to the horizon.'

"A girl of two and twenty who could calculate longitude from the altitude of a star.—Her heavy brows were knotted over her flaming eyes, her hat was gone, and her thick bands of yellow hair whipped across her face and streamed out in the wind like streamers of the northern light.—Her arms were bared to the elbow, her heavy ropes of hair flying and coiling from her in all directions, while with a voice hoarse from shouting she sang, or, rather, chanted, in her long forgotten Norse tongue, fragments of old sagas, words and sentences meaningless even to herself. The fury of battle had exalted her to a sort of frenzy. She was beside herself with excitement. Once more she had lapsed back to the vikings and sea rovers of the tenth century; she was Brunhild again, a shield maiden, a Valkyrie, a berserker and the daughter of berserkers."

RHONDA was herself again. SIGNALMAN IS TO BLAME

Esopus, N. Y., August 10.—The formal notification of Judge A. B. Parker of his nomination as Democratic candidate for the presidency took place this afternoon. In the morning flags and bunting draped about the low platform from which the speeches were delivered, and seats arranged conveniently about it on the lawn. The steamer Segomeno brought the notification committee from New York City between 1:30 and 2 p. m. With the fifty members of the committee came a large number of Democrats from this and other states among them former Senator D. B. Hill, Senator Joseph W. Bailey, of Texas, and members of the Democratic National Committee.

The opening speech was that of Chairman Champ Clark of Missouri, who formally notified Judge Parker of his nomination and gave to him a certified copy of the platform adopted by the St. Louis convention and of the message decided upon by the convention in reply to the judge's telegram on the gold standard sent to William F. Sheehan.

The opening speech was that of Contractor W. H. Bailey will this week begin laying the new tile floor and cutting the extra double doors in the government building corridor and installing the new boxes. He expects to occasion the general public very little inconvenience and the work will be finished in a few days.

Mr. Thomas C. Holloway, of Washington, D. C., said to be in the government secret service, was at the Palmer house last night, but remained in the city only a few hours.

FIVE YEARS' SEPARATION.

Judge R. T. Lightfoot this morning filed a suit in circuit court for Walter T. Smith against Ida A. Smith for divorce on the grounds of a five years' separation. They were married in this city in March, 1898.

THE INJURED.

O. C. Schwartz, Garrett, Ind., thigh broken, left leg crushed.

Michael Ossant, conductor in charge of the Chicago and Erie train; body bruised and internally injured.

O. W. Jones, conductor Baltimore and Ohio train, Mansfield, O., right leg broken and body bruised.

Miss Jennie Sutherland, Sioux City, body bruised and internally injured.

C. G. H. Arnold, Chicago, thrown from rear platform Baltimore and Ohio train; body bruised.

Mrs. M. F. Fry and nephew, both severely injured.

A rigid investigation will be made to determine who was responsible for the accident.

Benjamin F. Walter, conductor of the freight train that caused the disaster, declared that the signal man in an adjoining tower was to blame for the accident as he, according to Walter, gave the signal for the freight to come ahead, giving it the right way. After it had started he reversed the signal, but it was then too late to prevent the collision.

FAIR PROMOTER HERE.

Mr. George W. Rash, of Madisonville, Ky., one of the fair promoters, is here making arrangements for the big fair next week. The people of this section are promised one of the most delightful weeks on record, and large crowds will likely attend each day. He will be at Hotel Lagomarsino for several days.

It is believed that the American demands will soon be granted by the Porto.

ANOTHER SHUTOUT.

The Indians yesterday lost another game to Vincennes by a score of 10 to 0, the second in which the score was 10 to 0 in the present series. The remarkable feature of the game is that Goodwin, the Hoosier's new pitcher who pitched the 10 to 0 game a few days ago, pitched yesterday's 10 to 0 game, the second since he has been with Vincennes. That he won both by a shutout and with the same score, is something unusual.

Girard pitched for Paducah and the Hoosiers got 11 hits off him, and made only two errors. Paducah managed to get three hits and six errors, which would have been bad enough had it been reversed.

The fans are trying to find the cause of the trouble, and have hit on about everything. The fact seems to be that Paducah is weaker than she has been all the season. The difference is that when the Indians had their winning streak the other teams in the league were weak, and it was little trouble to beat them. They have all gradually strengthened while Paducah has not, and as a result the Indians can't win like they once could.

All experienced baseball men believe in luck, and expect a club to have a run of bad luck as well as good luck during a season. Fred Clarke, manager of the Pittsburgh pennant winners, says that Pittsburgh will win the pennant this year, despite New York's lead, and says the reason is that Pittsburgh has already had her run of bad luck and when he, Philippe, Wagner and others get back in the game in a few days, will begin going up. New York has had good luck thus far, and it is predicted will soon strike her streak of bad luck.

Cairo has already had her bad luck this season. While Paducah was winning everything from the other clubs Cairo was losing. Cairo has recovered from her attack, and Paducah now seems to have caught the contagion.

The game between Paducah and Vincennes yesterday was the only one played in the league and it was a postponed game.

The Vincennes Commercial says of Monday's game: No more scoring was done until the last half of the fifth, when with two men down, Clayton lined out one over the left field fence for a homer, big Taylor, the left fielder and utility man for Paducah, tried to knock the fence down in his attempt to get to the ball, and seven big planks are cracked as a result of the collision.

HORRIBLE DEATH

MISSISSIPPI WOMAN SATURATED HERSELF WITH OIL AND LIGHTED IT.

Memphis, Tenn., Aug. 10.—Grieving over the death of her husband Mrs. Annie Miller McCargo met a horrible death at Olive Branch, Miss. Mrs. McCargo was well known throughout the state, having conducted the principal hotel in Olive Branch, and when her husband, Attorney W. H. McCargo, died suddenly the shock unsettled her reason. Mrs. McCargo saturated her clothing and hair with kerosene, and proceeding to the principal street in town, struck matches and applied the blaze. When the horrified spectators reached her she fought them off and it was not until three men came up with blankets that the flames were extinguished. Then it was found that Mrs. McCargo was past relief, death ensuing in a few hours. Though unboltedly suffering severely, Mrs. McCargo uttered no moan, and not a word passed her lips after the frightful catastrophe.

NEW YORK SOCIETY WOMAN HAS $200,000 IN JEWELS STOLEN.

WILLIAM REAMS PROMISED NOT TO MISTREAT HIS CHILD AGAIN.

Wm. Reams, white, who yesterday slapped his three year old daughter about the streets, was released from custody on promise that he stop drinking.

Reams was drunk and at the corner of Kentucky avenue and First street struck the little child and knocked it into the Jackson laundry. Mr. Sam Jackson saw the father strike the child and reported it to the police, but on account of the man's condition and on promise that he would do better, he was released.

Reams stated that he was "willing to do the right thing about it," when asked why he didn't place the child in the Home of the Friendless. The mother is ill and the child would have received little care had its father been fined and placed in the lockup.

BROAD-TIRED WAGONS SHOULD ALWAYS BE USED.

Shelbyville News.

An Ohio farmer who recently visited Kentucky expressed great surprise that people are permitted to haul heavy loads over the pikes with narrow-tired wagons. He said where he lives all two-horse wagons have tires three and one-half and four inches wide. Their pike and gravel roads are as smooth as a floor, and two horses will haul three or four tons easily. He says the broad tires solves the repair problem for turnpikes and that it cannot be solved permanently in any other way. Also with broad tires there is no perceptible wear on roads. He states that the farmers like broad-tired wagons for farm use because they do not cut into the ground when driving over the fields. The use of broad-tired wagons has become so universal with them that narrow-tired wagons have been driven from their homes.

Tonight when it became known that Mrs. Gooley was the woman who had been robbed, Newport was thrown into a panic. She saw how futile further secrecy was, and took the first train to New York.

BOYS STRUCK

One Was Killed by a Train in Illinois.

They Went to Sleep on the Track Before the Train Came.

Morely Miller of Grantsburg was instantly killed and Leonard Beauman had his leg cut off by an Illinois Central train. Beauman says both fell asleep on the track. They were struck by a freight train two miles south of Simpson, Ill.

They were found by the crew of the morning train and Miller was cut to pieces but Beauman was still alive. The latter stated to the train crew that they had been to a ball game at Simpson and while on their way home became tired and thought they would sit down on the track and in a few minutes they were asleep.

Miller's body was found in pieces strung along the track.

Beauman told the crew as much as he knew about the accident. The boy has a hole in his head, the flesh cut off from knee down and foot cut entirely off. He said he had not suffered any pain since the accident.

VERY METROPOLITAN

PADUCAH'S DEPOT IS NOW A VERY BUSY PLACE.

The Illinois Central passenger depot now daily presents a very busy appearance and nearly always resembles a union station in larger cities, where several different roads meet.

The morning accommodation train from Elizabethtown was a few minutes late and made four trains in the depot about the same time. The Fulton train pulled in first and was followed by the Cairo train and following the Cairo train came the train from St. Louis via Brookport and Carbondale. At the same time the outgoing N. C. train came along and things were pretty lively. The Fulton train had many passengers for the N. C. and also did the Cairo train and the rush was something seldom seen at the depot.

DEAD OF TYPHOID.
Mr. Joseph Owens, aged 53, died yesterday afternoon from typhoid-flux at his home 1215 Tripple street after a two weeks illness. He formerly lived in the Massac Section of the county but came to the city to accept a position in the Cordage factory sometime ago. He leaves a wife and many friends. He was a member of the Odd Fellows.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 1 o'clock, and the burial was at Mt. Zion cemetery, in this county.

JOINT MEETING

The Two Boards Will Hold Special Session Tonight.

Will Consider the Bond Money and City Hospital Matter.

Major Yeiser has called a special meeting of the general council for this evening at the city hall to discuss the matter of building a new city hospital and market house this year, and of whether or not to pay for the hospital site out of the $15,000 bonds issued for a hospital, or out of other funds.

There has been a great deal of discussion relative to the board of public works desire to out down the hospital building cost to about $10,000, and spend the remainder for a site.

The ordinance under which the bonds were voted and issued gives the general council the right either to pay for the site out of the $25,000 or not to, but as $25,000 is a small amount for a hospital in a city of Paducah's size, as compared with the hospitals in other places, the general opinion seems to be that the city ought to pay for the site out of regular funds, and if necessary abandon the public park project which has been given considerable attention lately.

Major Yeiser and some of his close friends on the boards claim that the city can't afford to pay for the site out of next year's levy, on account of the new fire departments, but their agitation of the public park question does not indicate that they are sincere in what they say, as Paducah needs no park now, at least not so badly as some other things, and yet the city wants to purchase park sites out of next year's levy.

It is understood Major Yeiser will tonight recommend and urge the immediate building of the hospital according to the plans adopted by the hospital committee, and arrange to pay for the site next year or the following year.

U. S. MARRIAGE FACTS.

RHEUMATISM.

Eighty-five thousand divorced men are recorded and 114,963 divorced women in this country. There are 28,500,000 single men and 3,000,000 less single women. Twenty-eight million married persons are recorded and 44,178,155 single. Of widows there are 9,721,564, while of the widowers only 1,182,298 could be found.

HONSELL AGROUND

HIG TOWBOAT GETS HUNG UP AT THE SISTERS.

The Wash Honsell, one of the big tow boats owned and operated by the Pittsburgh Coal Combine, is aground at Sisters' Islands in the Ohio river a few miles above Paducah, and the towboat John S. Summers was sent up this morning with two barges and a big check line to help her off.

The Honsell was coming down with a miscellaneous tow when she got aground and the first news of the accident came yesterday afternoon in the way of a telephone message to the combine agency here. The captain stated he needed two barges and a check line and these were sent up this morning. It is presumed the boat will be off by this afternoon and enabled to proceed down.

MACHINIST BURNED

STEAM TURNED ON WHILE HE WAS WORKING ON AN ENGINE.

Tom Leader, a machinist employed in the local Illinois Central shops, was painfully burned yesterday afternoon while working in the roundhouse with a disabled engine.

The engine had steam up and Leader crawled under the big machine to adjust the workings when some one turned on the steam. The hot steam rushed out and struck Leader on the legs, burning them very painfully. Firemen were heard and the steam shut off but not until he had been badly burned.

He was taken to the hospital and the burns dressed and will be laid off from duty for some time.

NO BETTER

SECTION HAND IS CONSCIOUS ONLY PART OF THE TIME.

Arthur Cluchine, the section hand who was found lying injured beside the Illinois Central track near Unionland river bridge a week ago, is no better.

He was brought here and placed in the hospital in an unconscious condition from which he has never fully recovered. At times he seems to be himself but lapses into insensibility.

Mrs. G. Thompson and John Koller went to Uniontown yesterday to attend the fair.

NEW CAPITAL

To be Placed in a Local Manufactory Shortly.

Mr. Henry Gray, of Louisville, Expected in Paducah Tomorrow

Mr. Henry Gray of Louisville, Ky., is expected in Paducah tomorrow, and from reports will locate here and invest about $20,000.

Mr. Gray is a relative of Mrs. David L. Van Culin. He is well pleased with Paducah and has contemplated coming here for some time. It is understood that he will become a partner in the Stutz Caudy manufactory, at Jefferson and Second streets, which is a wholesale concern. Mr. Gray has never been in the caudy business but feels that this is a good location and the enterprise is a first class and promising one.

Mr. Stutz would not give out anything relative to the deal today, except that Mr. Gray would be here tomorrow, and would then probably be ready to speak for himself.

DURICK-SMITH WEDDING.

Friends in this city have just received the first definite information of the marriage of Mr. Fred Smith and Miss Mabel Durick, both formerly of Paducah. The wedding took place last Thursday afternoon in Evansville, and the couple left immediately for St. Louis to attend the fair, and will later go to New Orleans and finally to San Antonio, where the groom is now located.

ARRANGE FOR KENTUCKY LOG ROLLING.

Dawson Springs, Ky., Aug. 10.—The Woodmen of the World of Central and Western Kentucky have arranged for a log-rolling and barbecue at Dawson Springs, August 19 and 20. Several thousand Woodmen are expected to attend.

DEATH AT BENTON.

Benton, Ky., August 10.—"Uncle Jimmy" Lindsey, one of the best known men of this county, died at his home of scullity. He was ninety-two years of age.

FOUND AN OLD COIN.

While working in his flower garden last Saturday morning J. M. Bolouri unearthed a French 5 franc silver coin of the date of 1805. It is remarkably well preserved. It bears the head of Napoleon, with the inscription "Napoleon Emperor." It is believed by many that the coin was lost here when the French soldiers were camped at old Fort Massac in the early years of 1800.—Journal Republican.

CURES SCIATICA.

Rev. W. L. Riley, L.L. D., Cuha, New York, writes: "After fifteen days of excruciating pain from sciatica rheumatism, under various treatments, I was induced to try Bellard's Snow Liniment; the first application giving my first relief and the second entire relief. I can give it unqualified recommendation." 25c, 50c, $1.00. DuBois, Kolb & Co.

WILL WAS FILED.

The will of the late Captain W. E. Angus was filed yesterday afternoon in county court for probate. He left his home to his blind son with the provision that his daughter could live there two years free from rent.

This daughter, Mrs. Allie McCord, it was claimed would not file the will, and the court Monday ordered it filed.

This was done yesterday but the will cannot be probated until the next term of court.

Old-fashioned doctors used to say it was better, because they had nothing with which to ease pain but dangerous, heart-palinating drugs.

But now, that a safe remedy has been found, Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills.

Old fashioned pills will soothe your quivering nerves.

Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills relieve pain by restoring the natural secretions, in which they differ from opium and similar narcotic drugs, which relieve pain by checking the action of the glands.

They are sure and harmless, and are the latest medical treatment for the cure of Headache, Neuralgia, Backache, Rheumatism, Dizziness, Toothache, Stomachache, Menstrual (Monthly) Pains. Also nerve irritations like Seaside, Car-Sickness, Sleeplessness, Indigestion, etc.

A DIFFERENCE IN CITIES.

There is a vast difference in cities. Take Owensboro, Ky., for instance. There is not a better paved or a better lighted city in the country. It is not near so large as Paducah, but it has double the street lights, and has some of the finest asphalt streets—block after block of them—to be found anywhere. This shows civic pride. It shows official energy and progress—public spiritedness of which any city could well feel proud. But how is it with Paducah? Nothing doing. Instead of wanting to build up and improve and progress, city officials here want to hold back. They are never quite ready to make any improvement. They never have been, or Paducah would today have miles of brick or asphalt streets, and enough light at night to prevent people running over themselves in the dark.

As to private enterprise in Owensboro, however, that is another matter. There seems to be little there. That city is continually wrangling with the water company, the street car company and other public utilities. The water company and the city have been engaged in one contentious lawsuit for the past several years and are still at it, with the water company on top. The street car company a few years ago refused to build the proper kind of tracks when streets were being reconstructed because it cost a little money and it didn't want to spend it, and the council has just passed an ordinance requiring the tracks made right, which will cost the company about $35,000, where it would have cost comparatively little had it been done at the proper time.

All this, it seems, is because the men who run private corporations do not display the proper spirit of enterprise. The water company for years gave bad service at exorbitant rates, and finally brought public wrath down on its head. It is claimed it has not furnished adequate fire pressure since 1878. The electric lights furnished to private houses were so bad that the city installed a plant and itself entered the business, which pays more than the expense of running the entre city light plant with 300 lights. The public utilities in Paducah are just the opposite. Paducah, although having very little official enterprise, has the most progressive corporations to be found in the state. The water company is as complete as one can be made, it always gives the best possible service, and its rates are as cheap as can be found in the United States, and much cheaper than in a majority of places. It has in addition, at its own expense, just installed a large $100,000 filter as a further proof of its progressiveness, in order to give the people purest water.

The street car company is the same way. For years it ran cars with an income that hardly paid operating expenses. It has since extended its lines in many places, bought new cars, paid a large amount of taxes, and now has as good and cheap rapid transit service as can be found anywhere. It has just inaugurated a transfer system giving people twice as much for their money as before, and in addition wants to double track its Broadway line at its own expense and pay one-fourth the cost of paving the street. This shows real enterprise, and while the people deplore the lack of official enterprise, they have much to be proud of in the way of individual and corporate enterprise.

President Roosevelt has the interest as good as won. He is the strongest, most popular man in the country today. He is every inch a true American who has it not. Every body knows what he stands for and knows that he is not afraid to stand by it. He is a statesman that is made up of one that he will never give. He has not yet ever cast a farman for a man to stand. If the undertakers of the convention the colored undertakers of the state were excluded from membership in his association.

The time to exclude the negroes from the convention was made up of Mr. John Max, of this city, secretary treasurer of the state association.

Mr. Paxton he understood the colored undertakers of the state would form a separate organization.

There was even much color in the convention and all done this.

The convention was called to order at 9 o'clock. Major Charles F. Granger delivered the address of welcome, and the response was made by J. M. Connelly, of Charleston, S. C., president of the National Funeral Directors' Association.

ONE BODY FOUND.

Owensboro, Ky., August 10.—The body of Robert Lisenen, the fireman on the L. & N. and St. L. freight train which went through the bridge at Hopkinsville was recovered. The body of Walter Riedel, the engineer, has not been found. William Newton, the head brakeman, who was reported missing, saved himself by running on the top of the train. The car on which he started was falling when he began to run and several times he felt the cars giving way under his feet.

WANTED TO COME TO PADUCAH.

Hopkinsville, Ky., August 10.—George Buckner, colored, is in jail charged with snatching a ticket to Paducah from Robert Dade. It is claimed Buckner wanted to go to Paducah to attend the emancipation celebration and having no money of his own he snatched Dade's ticket.

STOLE FROM RAILROAD.

Fulton, Ky., August 10.—Arthur Slayden is in jail at Hickman charged with stealing a wagon load of brass lanterns and other things from the Illinois Central. He was arrested about a year ago, and released on a bond of $350 with his uncle, Fayette Davis, as security. He jumped his bond and went to Texas. Lately he returned and Mr. Davis informed the officers.

DEATH IN GRAVES.

Mayfield, Ky., August 10.—Mrs. Doris Gray, wife of Mr. Solomon Gray, three miles from Wingo, is dead, leaving a husband and three children.

KILLED BY FLYING LIMB.

Madisonville, Ky., August 10.—Theodore Moore, 17-years-old, was almost instantly killed by a flying limb while cutting timber in the forest near this city. The limb struck him with terrific force in the temple.

SNYDER ELECTED AGAIN.

Louisville, Ky., August 10.—At a meeting of the executive committee of the Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Fire Underwriters Claude F. Snyder was unanimously elected for the second time to the secretaryship of the board.

About a month ago the executive committee met and without solicitation on Mr. Snyder's part elected him by a unanimous vote to the secretaryship of the board, thus filling the vacancy caused by the death of Colonel W. C. Nelson.

A controversy arose, but all differences were finally settled and Mr. Snyder was elected again.

Alleged Thief Caught at Fulton
Yesterday.

Kentucky Undertakers' Association
Bars Colored Men—Snyder Elected
Secretary of Underwriters.

THE LATEST BRIEFLY GIVEN

Folio Ky., August 10.—The plot alarm was三人 from the city caboose and Marshal McDade appeared in time to prevent Tom Loftus, the city vagabond, from murdering a negro who had been placed in the same cell. Not liking the color of his bed fellow, Tom at once proceeded to whitewash him with a barrel of lime, and when McDade arrived, Loftus had the negro covered from head to foot. Loftus had to be given several licks with the marshals' billy before he could be quieted.

COLORED MEN EXCLUDED.

Louisville, Ky., August 10.—At the opening session of the convention of the Kentucky Funeral Directors' Association the colored undertakers of the state were excluded from membership in his association.

At the same time Treasurer Dorian expressed the bonds he drew a draft for $200,000 on the Cincinnati bank, signed by only himself, and the draft was promptly paid, and $200,000 is now subject to the check or order of Treasurer Dorian.

It will perhaps be of interest to note that Treasurer Dorian is the only black man who has any right to handle such funds. There was no time when it was otherwise, yet the mayor, finance committee and board members for days considered and discussed the disposition of the hood money, and apparently did not consider Treasurer Dorian in the matter at all. Colonel Dorian said nothing. He had read the charter and knew no one unauthorized to handle the money except the city treasurer, so he let them proceed to make themselves look foolish so long as they did nothing except talk. Had they attempted to make any other disposition of the funds than turning them over to the city treasurer, Colonel Dorian was prepared to be heard and he would have been heard.

The administration not only for some little time ignored the city treasurer and attempted to take the whole matter out of his hands despite the plain provisions of the city charter, but even went so far as to discuss the advisability of sending the mayor to Cincinnati after the money or of asking the president of the bank to bring it down.

This is made the more amusing because the money is here and yet not a single dollar of the $200,000 was brought to Paducah. It is ridiculous to think of our able officials discussing the various ways of bringing the money down, and of the responsibility of express companies in transporting large sums of money, when the whole transaction was consummated in a few hours and without a single dollar being moved.

Colonel Dorian was finally recognized, however, by the administration. His name is the only one that appears on the hundreds of coupons, and his name is the only one that was signed to the draft for $200,000, probably the largest ever handled by a bank in this part of Kentucky. When a certain prominent city official went to Colonel Dorian a short time ago and attempted to bluff him by declaring that the city wanted to loan out this money at a good rate of interest "because the people were worked up over it," and that if anyone attempted to interfere he would be shown up. Colonel Dorian only smiled that bland smile of his and informed the official that the people were not "worked up" about the amount of interest, but over the fact that it was necessary to put out the money at interest at all. The people were worked up, he declared, because they hadn't been given the improvements for which the money was voted. That it was over those officials responsible for the fact that these improvements had not been started and the money was not ready to be used, that the people were worked up.

Colonel Dorian has known all the time that the law required the money paid to the treasurer and deposited by him. The money, however, is in bank, and whether or not the city gets a dollar for the use of it for whatever length of time it is allowed to remain

CURED BY PERU-NA.

Peru-na is a Catarrhal Tonic
Especially Adapted to the Declining Powers of Old Age.

In old age the mucous membranes become thickened and partly lose their function.

This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbances.

Peru-na corrects all this by its specific operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.

One bottle will convince anyone. Once used and Peru-na becomes a lifelong stand-by with old and young.

When 88 years old can say it has glorified my whole system. I cannot but thank, dear Doctor, that you must feel very thankful to the all loving Father that you have been permitted to live and by your skill be such a blessing as you have been to suffering humanity."

—Rev. J. N. Parker.

Strong and Vigorous at the Age of Eighty-eight.

Rev. J. N. Parker, Utica, N. Y., writes:

"In June, 1881, I lost my sense of hearing entirely. My hearing had been somewhat impaired for several years, but not so much as to limit that I could converse with my friends; but in June, 1881, my sense of hearing left me, so that I could hear no sound whatever. I was also troubled with rheumatic pains in my limbs. I commenced taking Peru-na and now my hearing is restored as good as it was prior to June, 1881. My rheumatic pains are all gone. I cannot speak too highly of Peru-na, and now I do.

ECHO SPRINGS

THE NOTED LIVINGSTON COUNTY RESORT TO BE SOLD.

Dr. S. B. Caldwell this morning received authority to sell Echo Valley Springs, Livingston county, the springs near Smithland which are said to be equal to any heretofore. Dr. Caldwell intends to advertise for bids on the property immediately and effect the sale before the summer is out, if possible.

Echo Springs have during the past two years gained a good reputation for the purity and health giving quality of the water, and the owners of the springs, the Widows' and Orphans' Home, of Louisville, which acquired the property by the will of the late W. F. Norton, not being able to derive any revenue from the springs desire to sell.

Dr. Caldwell stated this morning that the home has not the proper funds to improve the springs and make it a watering place. He thinks that he will have no trouble at all in selling the property.

DETAILS OF WEDDING.

The Louisville Times of yesterday gives the following details of the marriage of Colonel Mott Ayres, formerly of Fulton, and now deputy insurance commissioner, with headquarters in Frankfort and Miss Mary Miller Coleman of Mt. Sterling, which was announced here in a telegram yesterday:

Colonel Mott Ayres, of the "Purchase," has won a beautiful bride from the "Blue Grass."

At the Louisville hotel at 1 o'clock this afternoon Colonel Ayres, whose home is in Fulton, but who now resides in Frankfort, where he occupies the position of deputy insurance commissioner, and Miss Mary Miller Coleman, of Mt. Sterling, were married. The Rev. Dr. Harlan K. Fenner officiated.

The news of the marriage will be of state wide interest because of the prominence of the bride and bridegroom. Miss Coleman is a tall and strikingly pretty blonde. She is the daughter of Mr. George Coleman, of Mt. Sterling. The family is prominent socially in the Bluegrass. Colonel Ayres comes from the extreme western end of the state, Fulton county being in the "Purchase." He is well known socially, as well as in business and politics. Before he became deputy insurance commissioner he was a member of the Democratic state executive committee. Colonel Ayres' title is not assumed, like that of many Kentuckians, but comes to him through his having been appointed on Governor Beckham's staff. As editor of the Fulton Leader Colonel Ayres has figured prominently in various political campaigns.

There was no objection to the marriage on part of Miss Coleman's parents. To avoid having an elaborate home or church wedding the contracting parties decided to be married in the parlor of the Louisville hotel in the presence of a few intimate friends.

Miss Coleman and Colonel Ayres arrived in Louisville on a Chesapeake and Ohio train at 11 o'clock this morning. Among the friends who accompanied them were: State Insurance Commissioner Henry Prewitt, of Mt. Sterling; Adjutant General Percy Italy, of Frankfort; Bridges White, of Mt. Sterling; James Doyle, of Lexington; State Auditor S. W. Hager, of Ashland.

Colonel Ayres met Miss Coleman at Olympia Springs, Bell county, a short time ago.

PRETTY ROMANCE.

A very pretty romance in connection with the wedding of Miss Lena Vanderveerde of 824 Rockman street, and Mr. Frank Adams of Philadelphia, has just been discovered. Mr. Adams was in the Sixth battery U. S. artillery stationed at Fort Riley, Kan. In the winter of 1901 he advertised for a correspondent in a St. Louis paper. Among about thirty answers he selected Miss Vanderveerde's and they have since corresponded. Photographs were exchanged and they became engaged. He came here ten days ago having been discharged from the army and they met for the first time. They were married last Sunday, at the home of the bride.

Rev. W. H. Robinson of the Second Baptist church performing the ceremony. Mr. Adams, previous to going into the army, had resided in Philadelphia, but has now taken a position with the local I. C. machine shops and the couple will reside here.

SURPRISE PARTY.

A surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Jake M. Itson at their home in Littleville last night. Refreshments were served on the lawn, which was lighted with Japanese lanterns, and the function was a very pretty one. Those present were: Messmates Ed Hansen, Will Tucker, Norton Derrington, J. V. Greif, Pete Derrington, John Nance, Cross, G. Derrington, Joe Stanfield, A. Greif, Misses Mamie and Sallie Graves, Ila Ronse, Fannie Greif, Madge Schotta, Rebecca Greif, Ida Derrington, Lillian Deering, Mildred Ronse, Flossie Derrington, Messrs. Wernell Graves, Greif, and Eugene Ronse.

MARRIED IN CAIRO.

John D. Moyers, age 26, of Oneida, Ky., and Miss Mary E. Renfro, age 18, of Lone Oak, Ky., secured a license yesterday at Cairo, Ill., and were married there. The bride is a well known young lady of the country.

KICKED TO DEATH

Would Have Been the Fate of Charles Nash.

Got in a Stall and the Horse Kicked Him Badly Before He Escaped.

Charles Nash, a colored blacksmith, who started in a stall to examine a wild western horse in the Palmer Transfer company stables this morning about 9:30, came near sustaining fatal injuries.

Nash had been in the stable before to examine a small horse which looked very much like the same animal. He went into the stall, placed his hand on the animal's back and the horse immediately began action. It jumped up and down and to one side and Nash started out, realizing that he had gotten into the wrong stall or that the horse had been changed, but before he could escape the animal jumped against him and mashed his body against the board sides of the stall. The right hand was fractured, the wrist badly sprained and the left leg mashed. Nash's chest was also bruised, but no bones broken. Dr. D. T. Stuart was called and administered to the injured man. He is not thought to be seriously injured, but had he not escaped from the stall when he did, would have been kicked to death.

NEW AGENT

MR. GEORGE WARFIELD WILL PROBABLY GO TO THE UNION DEPOT.

It is probable that in a few days Mr. George Warfield will receive the appointment as ticket agent at the Illinois Central passenger depot here. The arrangement has not been completed, but it has been recommended to the higher officials, and it is understood will likely go through.

Mr. Warfield is one of the best known and most popular young railroad men in the I. C.'s service, and was for many years local ticket agent, but resigned when it became necessary for the ticket seller to also be a telegraph operator. Since that time he has been one of the most steady and reliable men in the local freight department, and his new position will be in the nature of a deserved promotion.

Mr. Warfield will be given an assistant, Mr. W. H. Mestaine, a former agent who resigned and went elsewhere. The changes are made necessary by the resignation of Mr. G. A. Littell, who accepted a position for the Fox Typewriter, and will push it as soon as he is relieved.

NEW MEN

NIPPETT AND BATEMAN ARE EXPECTED IN A FEW DAYS.

Today a ticket was wired to Fred Bateman at Coshocton, Ohio, and he will bring with him Ben Nippert, the catcher. Nippert is a slicker and will be worked behind the bat, it is said, and Land will go to first. This will throw Harley to the field and will enable the team to have one or more real catchers in the game. Bateman will be played at third and Gerard will go on the outfield, it is said, or may be booted as utility man.

HANDED 26,511.

The Paducah street railway Monday, August 8, collected 26,511 cash fare, over 2,000 more than for the same day last year. Doubtless hundreds managed to ride free on account of the crowds and it is likely several hundred added to the above would still be under the actual number of people handled,—and without a single mishap.

DIFFERENT HEADS-- WHAT THEY SHOW

Studies of Craniums of Presidential Possibilities.

President Roosevelt Makes the Best Showing of Them All.

PARKERS' CHARACTERISTICS

Chicago, Ill., August 10.—Prof. Charles F. Boger, a Chicago phrenologist, has completed a study of the craniums of Roosevelt, and Parker. He summarizes the chief characteristics of each and further compares them:

Roosevelt—Constant, positive, well balanced, ambitious, influential, loyal, righteous, independent, aggressive, self-reliant, zealous, unaffected, conscientious, temperate, not a dreamer.

Parker—Firm, not strenuous, not magnetic, secretive, ultra-conservative, aesthetic, cautious, logical, broad-minded, polite, polished, affable, critical, practical, home lover, peaceable.

Among other things, Prof. Boger says of Judge Parker:

"His head is large and well developed in the moral, aesthetic and subjective regions. The faculties of continuity and firmness are large. The lower temporal region is decidedly negative, when compared to the middle temporal, which is decidedly positive. Herein lies the great point of difference between him and Mr. Bryan. Judge Parker ranks only on an average in physical activity and in the faculty of destructiveness. In speaking, he would be inclined to use his hands only little. He lacks the strenuousness of a Roosevelt and the magnetism of a Bryan. He is ultra-conservative and secretive. He manifests a very high regard for things beautiful. He reveals very large ideality, order and approbation.

"President Roosevelt's head is well balanced. He is utterly devoid of pretense or affection. He is sincere and loyal to the core. He is conscientious and loyal in duty as he sees it. He differs essentially from ex-President Cleveland, inasmuch as he is not only more easy of approach, more urbane, but because he is also a wonderfully correct reader of character. President Roosevelt knows instinctively whom and whom not to trust. President Roosevelt is a living example of righteous and abstemious living. He is a doer, not a dreamer."

PENSIONS PAID

KENTUCKY PENSIONERS ARE GETTING THEIR CHECKS NOW.

The clerks in the Louisville pension agency are busily engaged in sending out the quarterly pension checks to the veterans of the Civil, Mexican and Spanish-American wars who receive a quarterly stipend from the government.

The quarter ended August 4, and since the first of the month pension checks have been forwarded to the pensioners of Kentucky at the rate of from $3,000 to $5,000 a day. The agency covers the state of Kentucky, and 30,000 vouchers are sent out each quarter, distributing $1,000,000.

ON TO CALIFORNIA.

Personally conducted tour of Colorado, Utah and California in special Pullman sleeper has been arranged by Dr. C. E. Whitesides, Paducah, Ky., for Paducah and vicinity, Knights Templar, and friends to the Conclave, San Francisco. Low round trip rate $49.65 limited, return October 23. Leave Paducah August 29, from St. Louis August 30. Visit World's Fair and stops arranged. Sights seeing Colorado and Utah via Illinois Central, Missouri Pacific Railroad, Denver & Rio Grande Scenic Line, etc. Don't miss this opportunity to see California at cheapest rates ever offered and join the Kentucky special train. Every one welcomed. See Dr. Whitesides at once for itinerary of trip, sleeper reservations, etc., or address R. T. G. Matthews, T. P. A., Room 301 Norton Building, Louisville, Ky.

GO TO COURT

Special Agent Dinneen Still Doing Fine Work.

Left Today for Wickliffe to Go Before Grand Jury—Captured Grip Thief.

Mr. W. T. Dinneen, special agent for the Louisville division of the U. S. Marshals, passed through the city this morning en route to Wickliffe to appear before the grand jury.

Mr. Dinneen in his operations on the Cairo extension, has brought to justice many petty thieves and box car breakers and has abundance of business in the Wickliffe court. He is interested in several cases which will be tried there and is warned for evidence necessary to bring indictments against parties now in jail, pending the action of the grand jury.

Through the good work of Detective Dinneen a grip thief has been held over in Louisville for taking grips from the depot. His game is pretty slick. He walks up after he has spotted a grip and made sure the owner is busy buying a ticket and grasps the grip, which he makes away with. He performed his trick once too often and was yesterday held over to the grand jury under a $500 bond and was placed in jail in default.

Black has admitted to having taken five grips and all were recovered except one.

CREDITORS MEET

SEVERAL PADUCAHANS GO TO KUTTAWA ON BUSINESS.

A meeting of the creditors of the Swanee Spoke and Lumber company of Kuttawa is being held today at Kuttawa and several Paducah bankers and attorneys went up to attend the meeting.

The Spoke company has become involved in litigation in the courts over its business and the meeting of the creditors is being held to remedy the matter as much as possible. Those who want up from Paducah this morning are: Bankers George C. Thompson, Sam Hughes and Ed Noble and Attorneys J. Wheeler Campbell, Wm. Marble, and D. H. Hughes.

IS IT GREEN?

NEGRO ARRESTED IN ILLINOIS BELIEVED TO BE OWENS BORO MURDERER.

Carnegie, Ill., Aug. 10.—A negro, believed to be Roy Green, wanted at Owensboro, Ky., charged with murder committed July 31, was captured at Murphyboro after a running pistol duel with Officers Stevens and Baskin. The negro, on being approached, pulled a gun and ten shots were exchanged, two of which took effect, wounding the negro. He claims to be Manning Monroe of Duquoin.

HURT BY A FALL.

Eli Culp, aged 22, son of Mr. J. R. Culp, of Little Cypress, Marshall county, fell from a scaffold while painting a ceiling and had two ribs broken. It is not believed, however, that his injuries are serious.

CROPS HURT

CORN AND THE PASTURES ARE NEEDING RAIN.

The weekly summary of crop conditions in Kentucky is as follows:

The temperature averaged about normal, but with rather cool nights and the week closed with very cool weather prevailing. Local showers occurred over the greater portion of the state, but the rainfall was very unevenly distributed, some localities getting too much and others none at all.

"Wheat threshing is practically completed, and the reports show that a good yield of excellent quality has been secured. The acreage, however, was considerably less than usual.

"Corn is beginning to show the effects of the dry weather, and in some localities has been injured to a serious extent. In the sections having plenty of rainfall it is very promising.

"Tobacco is very uneven, and as a whole, is below the average in condition. It has been topped low in most places. In some localities there is complaint of trenching, and in some parts of the burley district it has not made a vigorous growth.

"Oats and rye have generally been cut and stacked in good condition, and bid fair to give a good yield.

"Gardens have been very fine, but in some localities they are now suffering from drought. Early potatoes are very fine. Melons are generally in good condition.

"Pastures are needing rain, and in some parts of the state are badly dried up. Peaches are turning out better than expected, but are very irregular, some localities having none, while in others the trees are loaded. Apples continue to fall and will be a short crop.

"Plowing for fall sowing of wheat has begun, and farm work is well up.

MUST PAY DAMAGE

BECAUSE HERE MOVED AN ADVERTISEMENT FROM DEAD WALLS.

Paris, Aug. 10.—The Prefect of police was sentenced to pay 5,000 francs damages to the owner of some cough drops because M. Levine exceeded authority in removing from the dead walls of Paris a certain advertisement of the medicine. This advertisement appeared at the time of the Boer War, and pictured the late Queen Victoria being fed on cough drops old Oom Paul. "Have another," said Paul to Vicky, and don't look so grumpy, old girl; they are sweet." Levine considered the advertisement less majestic, but refused in answer when asked which majesty he meant, Victoria or Paul. He succeeded in having his case postponed again and again, but finally was sentenced to pay 5,000 francs and costs. The costs are a little higher than the fine. This is the European way of dealing with officials who set themselves above the law.

In Germany the governor of Hanover is paying off a judgment Pollard cobmen obtained against him thirteen years ago for issuing an illegal order that meant much hardship and loss to them. For thirteen years his excellency has been docked $250 per annum for the benefit of the lowly cobmen, whom he was in the habit of brow-beating. The governor is a much wiser man now, and so is Chief of Police Levine.

A DELIGHTFUL PLACE TO SPEND THE SUMMER.

In the highlands and mountains of Tennessee and Georgia, along the line of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railway, may be found many health and pleasure resorts, such as Monteagle, Sewanee, Lookout Mountain, Hershey Springs, Bon Aqua Springs, East Broad Springs, Estill Springs, Nicholson Springs and many others. The bracing climate, splendid mineral waters, romantic and varied scenery combine to make these resorts unusually attractive to those in search of rest and health.

A beautifully illustrated folder has been issued by the N. C. and St. L. railway and will be sent to any one free of charge.

SKIN DISEASES

The Outcropping of Bad Blood.

While not always painful these are aggravating beyond expression. With few exceptions they are worse in spring and summer, when the system begins to thaw out and the skin is reacting and making extra efforts to throw off the poisons that have accumulated during the winter months. Then boils and pimplies, rashes and eruptions of every conceivable kind make their appearance, and B. S. B. is a good medicine. I keep it in the house all the while. It is an excellent tonic to give strength to the system and tone to all the skin diseases. Nettle Rash, Poison Oak and Ivy, and such other skin troubles as are usually remain quiet during the cold weather, break out after to torment and distract by their fearful burn, itching and stinging. A course of S. S. S. now will purify and enrich the blood,

CANTON, OHIO, is a good medicine. I keep it in the house all the while. It is an excellent tonic to give strength to the system and tone to all the skin diseases. It gives appetite and energy and makes one feel strong and healthy. I have found it also an excellent blood purifier. You can be troubled with an itchy skin eruption on the face, and dried specialists and many remedies to cure it, but B. S. B. is the only medicine that succeeds to relieve. I am now comparatively free of this eruption. I think a great deal of your medicine, believing in it, is the blood purifier. Barbadensis is known in the world to say.

The Blazed Trail

By STEWART
EDWARD WHITE

Copyright, 1902, by Stewart Edward White

So it was that Hilda Farrand gave her lover confidence, brought him out from his fanaticism, launched him afresh into the current of events. He remained in Chicago all that summer, giving orders that all work at the village of Carpenter should cease. With his affairs that summer we have little to do. His common sense treatment of the stock market, by which a policy of quiescence following an outright buying of the stock which he had previously held on margin, retrieved the losses already sustained and finally put both partners on a firm financial footing. That is another story. So, too, is his reconciliation with an understanding of his sister. It came about through Hilda, of course. Perhaps in the mercantile way of Providence the arrangement was of benefit, even necessity, for it had thrown him entirely within himself during his militant years.

Let us rather look to the end of the summer. It now became a question of re-opening the camp. Thorpe wrote to Shaver and Hudway, whom he had retained, that he would arrive on Saturday noon, and suggested that the two begin to look about for men. Friday, himself, Wallace Carpenter, Elizabeth Carpenter, Morton, Helen Thorpe and Hilda Farrand rounded the north bound train.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

THIE train of the South Shore railroad shot its way across the broad reaches of the northern peninsula.

Hilda wrinkled the smell of the northland. He became almost eager, exulting, indicating to the girl at his side.

"There is the Canada balsam," he cried. "Do you remember how I showed it to you first? And yonder the spruce. How stuck up your teeth were when you tried to show the girls before it had been heated! Do you remember? Look, look there! It's a white pine! isn't it a grand tree? It's the finest tree in the forest, by my way of thinking, so tall, so straight, so feathery and so dignified. See, Hilda, look quick! There's an old logging road all filled with raspberry vines. We'd find lots of partridges there, and perhaps a bear. Wouldn't you like to walk down it about sunset?"

"Yes, Harry."

"I wonder what we're stopping for. Seems to me they are stopping at every squirrel's trail. Oh, this must be Beney. Yes, it is. Queer little place, isn't it, but sort of attractive? Good deal like our town. You have never seen Carpenter, have you? Lozenthin's fine anyway, and to me it's sort of picturesqueness. You'll like Mrs. Hathaway. She's a lady, another woman who runs the boarding house for eighty men and still finds time to mend my clothes for me. And you'll like Solly. Solly's the tug captain, a mighty good fellow, true as a gun barrel. We'll have him take us out some still day. Well, be there in a few months now. See the cranberry marshes. Sometimes there's a good deal of pine on little islands scattered over it, but it's very hard to log unless you get a good winter. We had just such a proposition when I worked for Hudway. Oh, you'll like Hudway. He's as good as gold, Helen!"

"Yes," replied his sister.

"I want you to know Hudway. He's the man who gave me my start." "All right, Harry," laughed Helen. "I'll meet anybody or anything from beads to Indians."

"I know an Indian, too—Goosigut, an Ojibway. We called him Injin Charley. He was my first friend in the north woods. He helped me get my timber. This spring he killed a man—a good job, too—and is hiding now. I wish I knew where he is. But we'll see him some day. He'll come back when the thing blows over. See! See!"

"What?" they all asked, breathlessly.

"It's gone. Over beyond the hills there I caught a glimpse of Superior."

"You are ridiculous, Harry," protested Helen Thorpe laughingly. "I never saw you so. You are a regular boy."

"Do you like boys?" he asked gravely of Hilda.

"Adore them!" she cried.

"All right; I don't care," he answered his sister in triumph.

The air brakes began to make themselves felt, and shortly the train came to a grinding stop.

"What station is this?" Thorpe asked the colored porter.

"Shingerville, ma'am," the latter replied.

"I thought so. Wallace, when did their mill burn, anyway? I haven't heard about it."

"Last spring, about the time you went down."

"Is that so? How did it happen?"

"They claim incendiarism," purred Wallace caustically.

Thorpe pondered a moment, then laughed. "I am in the mixed attitude of the small boy," he observed, "who hasn't wicked enough to wish anybody's property destroyed, but who wishes that if there is a fire, to be where he can see it. I am sorry those fellows had to lose their mill, but it was a good thing for us. The men who set that fire did us a good turn. If it hadn't been for the burning of their mill they would have made a stronger fight against us in the stock market."

Wallace and Hilda exchanged glances. The girl was long since aware of the inside history of those days.

"Men," cried Thorpe, "I have been very fortunate. From failure success has come. But never have I been more fortunate than in my friends. The firm is now on its feet. It could afford to lose three times the loss it lost this year."

He paused and scanned their faces. "But," he continued suddenly, "it cannot now or ever can afford to lose what those 30,000,000 feet represent—the friends it has made. I can pay you back the money you have spent and the time you have put in—" Again he looked them over, and then for the first time since they had known him his face lighted up with a rare and tender smile of affection. "But, comrades, I shall not offer to do it. The gift is accepted in the spirit with which it was offered."

He got no further. The air was rent with sound. Even the members of his own party cheered. From every direction the crowd surged onward. The women and Morton were forced up the platform to Thorpe. The latter motioned for silence.

"All right, sah," said the porter, swinging down his little step.

Thorpe ran down to help the ladies. He was nearly taken from his feet by a wild yell, and a moment later that roar was actually accomplished by a rush of men that tossed him bodily on to their shoulders. At the same moment the mill and tug whistles began to screech and miscellaneous firecrackers exploded. Even the locomotive engineer, in the spirit of the occasion, leaned down heartily on his whistle rope. The sawdust street was filled with screaming, jostling men. The homes of the town were brilliantly draped with cheesecloth, flags and bunting.

For a moment Thorpe could not make out what had happened. This tumult was so different from the dead quiet of desertion he had expected that he was unable to gather his faculties. All about him were familiar faces upturned to his own. He distinguished the broad, square shoulders of Scotty Parsons, Jack Hyland, Kortie, Bryan Moloney; Hilda grimed at him from the press; Billy Camp, the fat and shiny drive cook; Mason, the foreman of the mill; over beyond howled Solly, the tug captain; Hollway Charley, Shorty, the chord boy; everywhere were features that he knew.

As his dimming eyes traveled here and there, one by one the Fighting Forty, the best crew of men ever gathered in the northland, impressed themselves in his consciousness. On the outskirts shimmered the tall form of Tim Shriner, a straw peeping from beneath his flax white mustache, his eyes glimmering under his flax white eyebrows.

Big Jumbo and Anderson deposited their burden on the raised platform of the office steps. Thorpe turned and fronted the crowd.

At once pandemonium broke loose, as though the previous performance had been nothing but a low voiced rehearsal.

"Oh, aren't you proud of him?" gasped Hilda, squeezing Helen's arm with a little sob.

In a moment Wallace Carpenter, his countenance glowing with pride and pleasure, mounted the platform and stood beside his friend, while Morton and the two young ladies stepped half way up the steps.

At once the racket ceased. Every one stood at attention.

"Mr. Thorpe," Wallace began, "at the request of your friends here, I have a most pleasant duty to fulfill. They have asked me to tell you how glad they are to see you. That is surely unnecessary. They have also asked me to congratulate you on having won the right with our rivals."

"You done 'em good!" "Put'n down the old fellow!" muttered joyous voices.

"Hut," said Wallace, "I think that I first have a story to tell on my own account."

At the time the jam broke this spring we owed the men here for a year's work. At that time I considered their demand for wages ill timed and grasping. I wish to apologize. After the money was paid them, instead of scattering, they set to work under Jack Hudway. They have worked long hours all summer. They have invested every cent of their year's earnings in supplies and tools, and now they are prepared to show you in the company's booths 3,000,000 feet of logs rescued by their grit and hard labor from total loss."

At this point the speaker was interrupted. "Saw off!" "Shut up!" "Give us a rest!" growled the audience. "Three million feet ain't worth talkin' about!"

"You make me tired!" "Say your little say the way you youngster!" "Pound purty nigh two millions pocketed on Marce's Island, or we wouldn't 'a' had that touch!" "Fool's undertaking, anyhow!"

Use Shoffner's Sure Cure

The Great Tonic and Blood Purifier—Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and Catarrh.

It is a trite and true saying that the "blood is the life." Now where does the blood come from? Everybody knows, or should know, that it comes from the nutritive elements extracted by the stomach from the food we eat. If the digestive organs do not perform their functions by reason of disease germs, there is no nutrition extracted, and the food might better be thrown in the dump to decay and breed germs in the open air than to remain in the stomach and become a rotten, putrid mass, as it naturally does if there is no digestion. No disease germs can live and find lodgment in a human body that uses the Shoffner's Sure Cure. Price $1.00.

AIR WOULDN'T WORK AND TRAINS STRUCK

"Side Swipe" in the Princeton Yards Yesterday.

The Train Crews Jumped and the Damage to Rolling Stock Was Not Large.

AND NO ONE WAS INJURED

Two freight trains "side-swiped" in the Princeton, Ky., I. C. yards yesterday, turning both engines over and blocking the main line for about an hour. No one was injured, fortunately, both crews jumping when the danger was seen, and the damage will amount to little.

The accident was due to the failure of the air to work on one of the trains which failed to stop in time to give the other a clearing. Train No. 196, engine No. 1712, in charge of Conductor E. O. Speer and Engineer F. M. Raymer was coming down the main line pretty fast when extra No. 47, engine No. 47, in charge of Conductor C. O. Simms and Engineer W. P. Landell, started out of a siding. The 196 saw the extra backing out and the engineer tried to stop, but the engine "ran away" from him and when he saw the danger, he jumped.

The crew on the extra also jumped and when the engines came together were both knocked far off the rails and a few box cars were derailed. The damage to the engines will amount to quite a great deal, but the cars were damaged but slightly. The rails were torn up pretty badly but the damage in dollars will not amount to more than $500, it is thought.

A CONFERENCE

May be Held by Shop Men With Mr. McCourt.

He Is Due to Pass Through Today or Tomorrow Again.

Mr. H. McCourt, assistant superintendent of southern lines of the I. C., is due to pass through Paducah again this afternoon or tomorrow after an inspection of the Louisville division of the road, and if he remains in Paducah long enough will probably be seen by the committee appointed from the employees of the local shops relative to the management of the hospital.

It will be remembered that the employes at the trades council meeting held more than two weeks ago, decided to ask the company to grant a new board to manage the hospital, three members to come from the company officers and eight from the shop men. A letter was written Mr. McCourt but no reply has been received. The committee will be ready to confer if Mr. McCourt desires. The employes are anxious to have the matter settled.

IS IMPROVING SLOWLY.

Walter Matthews, the 14 year old boy who was thrown from a horse more than a week ago and rendered unconscious, has never recovered, but is much better. He spoke day before yesterday for the first time since he was injured, remaining unconscious for more than seven days and without uttering a word. He was able to sit up yesterday, but at times becomes unconscious again. He will be able to be out within the next two weeks, the doctors think.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEET.

The board of directors of the Y. M. C. A. met in regular session at the association building last night. Financial plans were discussed. There will be a called meeting of the board Saturday night to make further financial arrangements.

Hon. Charles Reed went to Dawson this morning.

$6,000 LEFT

County Road Work Will End This Month in McCracken.

Supervisor Johnson Will Save $3,000 for Necessary Work This Winter.

County Road Supervisor E. B. Johnson states that work on the county roads will end this month. There is quite a little yet to do, but it is believed that it can all be done this month. There is $6,000 yet in the road appropriation, and it is expected that $3,000 of this will be spent this month, most of the work being repairs.

Supervisor Johnson states that he will retain $3,000 of the amount left, for work on the road during the winter, should any work become necessary by reason of washouts or bad weather.

NOT YET READY

COMBINE SENDS ONE DOCK AWAY AND ORDERS ANOTHER.

The Pittsburgh Coal Combine, which has entered the local market is not yet ready to furnish the city trade but will be in a short time.

The combine intends to have an independent line of wagons and its own docks to load from. One dock was sent here from St. Louis, but was not large enough and was rejected. There is another dock owned by the combine which will be sent here shortly, and after a few preliminary matters have been arranged, the combine will begin selling coal in the city.

The docks will be moored at the foot of Washington street, but a roadway will have to be built. Work on this will start in a few days and by the time the docks are here, will be complete and ready for service.

Mr. Henry P. Nunn, who left the city last March for the Holy Land returned last night, having traveled extensively through Europe and Asia. Mr. Nunn is looking well and had a delightful time.

JUDGE PARKER WAS NOTIFIED TODAY

with a good purpose, no doubt, but in disregard, nevertheless, of the fact that ours is a government of laws, not of men, deriving its "just powers from the consent of the governed."

He deprecates the labor disturbances throughout the country and criticizes both the unions and the citizens of Colorado for their conduct in the labor war being waged in that state. With reference to the tariff he says:

The present tariff law is unjust in its operation, excessive in many of its rates and so framed in particular instances as to exact inordinate profits from the people.

It is a fact and should be frankly conceded that should our party be successful in the coming contest we cannot hope to secure a majority in the senate during the next four years and hence we shall be unable to secure any modification in the tariff. We hope to which the Republican majority in the senate may consent. While, therefore, we are unable to give assurances of relief to the people from such excessive duties as burden them, it is due to them that we should state our position to be in favor of a reasonable reduction of the tariff.

The combinations, popularly called trusts, which aim to secure a monopoly of trade in the necessities of life as well as in those things that are employed upon the farm, in the factory and in many other fields of industry, have been encouraged and stimulated by excessive tariff duties. All men must agree that the net result of enacting laws that foster such inadequate conditions, is most unfortunate for the people as a whole, and it would seem as if all ought to agree that the effective remedy would be to appropriately modify the offending law.

On the Filipino question he says: It is difficult to understand how any citizens of the United States, much less a descendant of Revolutionary stock, can tolerate the thought of permanently denying the right of self-government to the Filipinos.

In concluding he says if he is elected he will not be a candidate for re-election for "I am fully persuaded that no incumbent of that office should ever be placed in a situation of possible temptation to consider what the effect of action taken by him in an administrative matter of great importance might have upon his political fortunes. Questions of momentous consequence to all of the people have been in the past and will be in the future presented to the president for determination and in approaching their consideration, as well as in weighing the facts and the arguments bearing upon them, he should be embarrassed by any possible thought of the influence his decision may have upon anything whatever may affect him personally. I make this statement, not in criticism of any of our presidents from Washington down who have either held the office for two terms or sought to succeed themselves; for strong arguments can be advanced in support of the re-election of a president. It is simply my judgment that the interests of this country are now so vast and the questions presented are frequently of such overpowering magnitude to the people, that it is indispensable to the maintenance of a befitting attitude before the people, not only that the chief magistrate should be independent but that independence should be known of all men."
